

PDF Versions of Textbooks for use with Assistive Technologies

Publishers make available under specific conditions PDF Versions of Textbooks for use with Assistive Technologies for the benefit of pupils with reading difficulties. Due to the conditions of copyright both with authors and images and other copyright material contained within the book, these files are solely for use by the pupil for whom they are authorised, and cannot be distributed, copied or used for any other purpose.

The person to whom the PDF versions are licensed must also have purchased an original printed copy of the requested book title or have purchased an eBook only licence of the requested book title from the publisher. Publishers reserves the right to request proof of purchase from the applicant.

PDFs for Student Laptops

No PDFs will be provided for student laptops other than in exceptional circumstances. Publisher's titles are available for purchase in print and eBook versions only.

PDFs for Special Needs/Dyslexia Technology

PDFs in a specific format may be provided for pupils with recognized special needs, on application to the publisher. The usage is intended solely to aid the reading of the text, as various assistive software programmes are available separately that simulate voice reading of the text.

File Format

The format of the PDFs is as follows:

- ❖ Full text copy of the book, in the same layout as printed book.
- ❖ Security password applied, restricting any editing or printing of the document.

Note that the security password is for internal use only and is not given to the applicant. A record is maintained of each title generated, together with its identifier and password.

Application Process

The applicant must complete the attached form, agree to the terms and conditions of use. They must state the reason for which the file is being requested and provide the contact details of the Special Needs Assistant (or equivalent) who will be supporting the use of the files.

The publisher will supply the PDF files via download. There is no charge for the download.
